12. Provision of record to parties.— The Commission may, subject to payment of fee as prescribed by regulations, provide access to information or record to a party, in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these rules.

PART III

REFERRAL, ALLOCATION AND PROCEEDINGS

13. Notice to appear.— Immediately after filing of reply of the complaint by the respondent under these rules, the Commission shall notify the date for appearance to parties. An appearance shall be deemed to include the option of online video conference.

14. Negotiations.— (1) When the parties to the trade dispute appear before the Commission, the Commission shall at first, seek to resolve the trade dispute by assisting the parties in conducting negotiations between themselves in order to arrive at an amicable settlement, within thirty days of the first appearance of the parties before the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall make its best efforts to facilitate parties in conducting negotiations through a meeting of parties or their authorised representatives in person, by video conference, telephone or similar means of communication at a place mutually agreed among by the parties and in case of disagreement, the Commission shall decide the place.

(3) If the parties to the trade dispute reach a settlement, they shall draw up and sign a settlement agreement amongst themselves, setting out the terms of the settlement, which shall become binding on the parties to the settlement agreement. A copy of the settlement agreement shall be submitted to the Commission for its record. Parties, through their authorized representative, shall also have the authority to enter into such a settlement agreement. If the proceedings are online, and the parties sign an electronic document, the parties shall certify and indemnify that the same is binding and compliant with their local laws, and no ground shall be raised in any forum challenging the settlement agreement, solely due to its electronic nature.

(4) Where the parties have signed a settlement agreement pursuant to sub-rule (3), any violation of the terms of the settlement agreement by any party may be brought before the Commission by an aggrieved party. The Commission shall initially endeavor to resolve the dispute between the parties amicably, failing which it shall treat the dispute as a complaint by an aggrieved party and pass a final determination.

(5) In case efforts to resolve the trade dispute through negotiations fail, the Commission shall under rule 16, allocate or refer, as the case may be, such trade dispute to the relevant dispute resolution mechanism, in accordance with the applicable minimum threshold.

15. Minimum threshold.— Subject to section 33 of the Act, the minimum threshold shall be one hundred million US dollars or equivalent on the date of filing of complaint at the rate as notified by the State Bank of Pakistan. The minimum threshold shall determine the referral or allocation of the trade disputes to the appropriate trade dispute resolution method.

16. Referral to commercial bench.— (1) When the efforts to resolve the trade dispute through negotiations fail, a referral to a commercial bench of a High Court pursuant to section 50 of the Act, shall only be made by the Commission if the amount claimed in the complaint is equal to or higher than the minimum threshold.

(2) The Commission, upon deciding that the complaint is eligible for being referred to the Commercial Bench, shall notify the parties immediately in writing within reasonable time.

17. Allocation to trade dispute resolution methods.— (1) In the event that efforts to resolve the trade dispute through negotiations fail and the quantum of the claim is not equal to or higher than the minimum threshold, the Commission shall seek consent to—

- (a) refer the trade dispute to conciliation in accordance with section 42 of the Act;
- (b) refer the trade dispute to arbitration in accordance with section 47 of the Act; or

(c) initiate proceedings to reach a final determination.

(2) Such consent shall be sent to the Commission within seven days of receipt of the letter seeking consent.

(3) In case parties agree, the Commission shall immediately allocate the trade dispute to the agreed resolution method. In case there is a disagreement on the trade dispute resolution method as specified in sub-rule (1), the Commission shall proceed for determination.

18. Self-allocation by the Commission.- If the parties to the trade dispute are unable to arrive at an agreement with regard to adopting any one of the trade dispute resolution methods within thirty days or one or more of the parties against whom a complaint has been filed fails to appear at the date notified by the Commission in the notice to appear, the Commission may initiate proceedings and reach on final determination in accordance with Part V of the Act.

PART IV

CONCILIATION

19. Conduct of mediation and conciliation.- Mediation and conciliation shall be conducted in accordance with UNCITRAL Mediation rules 2021 as amended from time to time and UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules, 1980 as amended from time to time read with the Act.

20. Fee of conciliator and mediator.- The conciliator or mediator and their fee shall be decided by parties. In case the parties fail to decide conciliator or mediator or their fee, the Commission shall then decide both mediator or conciliator and their fee. The costs, shall be borne equally by the parties unless the settlement agreement provides for a different apportionment.

PART V

ARBITRATION

21. Reference to arbitration.- Any trade dispute, which the parties agree to submit to arbitration, shall be allocated to arbitration by the Commission for arbitration under UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

22. Fee of arbitrator or cost of arbitration.- The arbitrator and their fee shall be decided by parties. In case the parties fail to decide arbitrator or their fee, the Commission shall then decide both arbitrator and their fee. The costs shall be borne equally by the parties unless the award provides for a different apportionment.

PART VI

DETERMINATION OF THE COMMISSION

23. Final determination by the Commission.— Subject to chapter V of the Act, the Commission shall reach to the final determination of a trade dispute under the provisions of the Act, where parties have opted for settlement of the trade dispute through a final determination by the Commission or the Commission has assumed allocation thereof under the Act and these rules.

24. Appeal against Commission's final determinations.— Within fifteen days of the receipt of the final determination by the Commission, any party aggrieved by it may prefer an appeal to the commercial bench of the High Court.

PART VII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

25. Exclusive jurisdiction of the Commission.— In accordance with section 7 of the Act, if any party intends to raise a dispute regarding jurisdiction of the Commission, including but not limited to, the interpretation and application of a provision of the Act, or the rules, then the Commission shall be deemed to have exclusive jurisdiction to make a determination on the same.

26. International TDRC Support Desk.— In accordance with clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 53, the Commission shall maintain on its website the location of all International TDRC Support Desks and the requisite services available at the same and determine the criteria for their establishment and related matters.

27. External organizational support.— The Commission may request the assistance of external organizations to act as expert witnesses or to provide support in disputes from time to time.

28. Trade profile of countries and areas.— In accordance with clause (b) of section 51, the Commission shall maintain an index on its website that shall display the risks and benefits of trade in particular countries and areas. It shall highlight the incorporation of relevant dispute resolution mechanisms as well as other parameters as determined by the Commission from time to time.

29. Language of the Commission.- The proceedings of the Commission shall be conducted in English. Case documents submitted to the Commission in a language other than English, shall also provide a readable printed or typed translation thereof in English language which shall be duly verified.

30. Order to be signed and dated.- Every order of the Commission shall be signed and dated by the Members.

31. Communication of orders.- A copy of the duly signed order passed by the Commission shall be communicated to all the parties via electronic and physical modes.
